

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND FILED

Devon Donzel Letourneau, executor, Petitioner.

2021 JAN 32 A 10:44
Case no:
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND
20-CV-00269-JJM-LDA

v.

THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND, et al.,
Respondents / Defendants

Motion For An Extension of Time

Now comes Petitioner in above title caption respectfully requesting that this Honorable court extend Petitioners time to Amend original Petition to 2-16-2021 [20 day extension from the 30th day after the courts 12-28-2020 Order].

Exhibit A attached (2 pages) is to show the Honorable court of the hardship Petitioner endures in his efforts to prepare his case. Petitioner has no immediate Law Library access and must wait sometimes in excess of weeks to obtain case law, court rules, photocopies, etc... Therefore Petitioner prays that this Honorable court grant an extension. Thank you sincerely.

Certification

I, Petitioner, have caused a handwritten copy of this Motion (with the acceptance of Exhibit A) to be sent via First class mail to the RI Office of Attorney General, located at: 150 South Main street, Providence, RI 02903, on the 21st day of January, 2021. Please take NOTE: Petitioners access to photocopying legal documents is temporarily out of order, thus Petitioner respectfully asks this Honorable court to provide the State with proper Notice and or copy of Exhibit A.

Respectfully Submitted,

WHAT THE LEXIS SYMBOLS MEAN

If your case has been assigned a  or  you will need to further review the Shepard's report to determine if it can still be cited in support of your issue. If the case is assigned any other symbol, it is good law.

Warning: Negative treatment is indicated

The red Shepard's Signal indicates that citing references in the Shepard's® Citations Service contain strong negative history or treatment of your case (for example, overruled by or reversed).

Warning: Negative treatment is indicated for statute

The red exclamation point Shepard's Signal indicates that citing references in the Shepard's® Citations Service contain strong negative treatment of the Shepardized™ section (for example, the section may have been found to be unconstitutional or void).

Questioned: Validity questioned by citing refs.

The orange Shepard's Signal indicates that the citing references in the Shepard's® Citations Service contain treatment that questions the continuing validity or precedential value of your case because of intervening circumstances, including judicial or legislative overruling.

Caution: Possible negative treatment indicated

The yellow Shepard's Signal indicates that citing references in the Shepard's Citations Service contain history or treatment that may have a significant negative impact on your case (for example, limited or criticized by).

Positive treatment indicated

The green Shepard's Signal indicates that citing references in the Shepard's Citations Service contain history or treatment that has a positive impact on your case (for example, affirmed or followed by).

Citing refs. with analysis available

The blue "A" Shepard's Signal indicates that citing references in the Shepard's Citations Service contain treatment of your case that is neither positive nor negative (for example, explained).
